Chairmans Welcome

David Dorsett-Lynn

Firstly, I'd like to begin by acknowledging the traditional owners of country throughout Australia and recognises their ongoing connections to land, sea and community. We pay our respects to their elders past and present and extend that respect to the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people today.

Good afternoon. It is my honour to offer a very warm welcome to the Chefs Long Table Charity Lunch 2023. This year marks our 20th Annual Luncheon, and we are incredibly delighted to be honouring the contributions made to community projects and non-profit organisations that improve the lives of local individuals in a variety of ways.

Additionally, I'd like to take this chance to thank Bunbury Volkswagen Driving the Southwest, Lost Bills, and Jewellers Goldsmiths for their ongoing support of "The Lunch" as our premium sponsors and we value your involvement in supporting our event.

Thank you so much to everyone in attendance today, as well as to our regular diners, sponsors, supporters, volunteers, and prior diners who have helped us generate money to support the essential work of our regional charities. Many of us, including our local chefs, winemakers, producers, suppliers, sponsors, and small companies, have experienced years of uncertainty, so we owe a debt of gratitude to everyone who has maintained their support and dedication to our charitable endeavours.

There's no escaping the issue that has over-shadowed us all for the past 3 years. The COVID-19 outbreak has made the last three years the most turbulent and challenging in recent memory. The effects have been profound and will be felt for a long time to come around the world. But it's good to get some normality back and to be able to see the happy smiles we missed last year because of masks.

Finally, it is always an honour to be the Chairman of "The Lunch", but perhaps never more so than this year. Everyone has banded together and responded to hardship with tenacity, fortitude, generosity, and compassion. The true measure of this committee and community can often best be seen when it faces tough challenges. The committee and community has performed magnificently, and I am humbled to represent "The Lunch", for both past and present volunteers, who have helped make Chefs Long Table Charity Lunch the successful and respected event it is today.

I am excited about our future and look forward to bigger and better things ahead.

Thank you.

How the Long Table came to be

Don Hancey - Chef and WA Food Ambassador

I remember clearly my darling mum Connie Hancey saying to me that on my next home visit to Bunbury I needed to talk with Leonie Kershaw and Snookie Manea about an idea they had for a Chefs Charity Lunch to raise funds to save the historic old Bunbury Jetty.

Anyone growing up or living in Bunbury in the 1900's would remember this amazing timber jetty, built in 1864 by convicts. The waters underneath the jetty a fisherman's paradise supplying crabs and fish for recreational fishers whilst still operating as an active port. As a kid growing up in Bunbury the jetty was a place of fun and excitement where you could dangle a crab net off the side and catch a blue manna crab, hook a herring or 2 and simply have an adventure outdoors.

After meeting with Leonie and Snookie the plan was hatched to create a Long Table Lunch on the walkway from the rail bridge to where the new Dome building stands.

The first Long Table we sold around 100 tickets and raised about $6000. From that first Long Table in 2004 the CLTCL has morphed into one of Australia's longest running regional Charity Lunches. The focus on where the funds raised were to be directed changed from trying to save the Bunbury Jetty to assisting local families and community organisations in need.

In volunteering for this event the hospitality industry could give back to the people who support them thus heralding the birth of the Chefs Long Table Charity Lunch. Many of the business, volunteers and chefs have been with the charity event from its inception and still hold the passion and dedication along with old and new committee members, chefs and businesses to ensure its continued and ongoing success.

Leonie has been the driver and inspiration for the CLTCL and I take my hat off to her and salute her absolute generosity of spirit.

Leonie's daughter Tanya for over a decade ran the back of house kitchen, the engine room of the event, a formidable demanding task given the volume of quality food being served by the equally professional service from the front of house and beverage staff. All of these donate their time, knowledge, expertise, produce and more to ensure the success of this iconic charity event.

What continues to excite me is at the end of the lunch you realise you have been an ingredient in recipe that is way greater than yourself, a whole bunch of generous spirited people, a lunch that is 100% volunteer charged from the planning and set up crew, the dishwashers, the chefs, the front of house, the committee, the ongoing generous sponsors and you folk, the people who buy the tickets. To me it's the true essence of collective giving.

Raise your glass and toast and enjoy the 2023 Chefs Long Table Charity Lunch.

Lost Bills Tiny Badass Bar

In the seaside town of Bunbury, Western Australia there's a Badass Tiny Bar where the cocktails are craft, the beers are chilly, and the wine list is local. Drinks are made with passion, service is delivered with a smile and a chat and the locals lap it up - Bills House is where they come to hang after their 9-5, for a weekday nip or a Saturday night blow out. It's damn cosy in winter and a haven from the hot sun in summer. The tunes are on beat, the food is BYO and the vibes are long lasting. Everybody loves Bills, and Bill loves everybody.

The team at Lost Bills are so excited to be part of this extraordinary event and look forward to more to come. Head on down to our badass bar for a drink or two to reminisce about this great day!

Friends of the Table

We extend our thanks to everyone who has joined us as one of our esteemed guests today and in the past. We especially thank our Friends of the Table for their support and sharing our vision for the success of 'The Table.' This year's Friends of the Table include:

Don Punch
Errol Barrett
Peter Krikke

We are grateful for their continued support and contribution to the success of the Chefs Long Table Charity Luncheons. By assisting to raise significant funding, they have enabled many local charitable organisations to introduce or extend much needed projects to benefit local residents across all ages.

To the Founder

21 years ago, three pillars of the Hospitality Industry of WA put their heads together to find a way to raise money to save the Historic Bunbury Jetty whilst also promoting local Food, Wine, Restaurants & Chefs. It wasn't long and the Chefs Long Table Charity Lunch was born.

Starting out with 100 guests and some of the best chefs of the Southwest the first year of the Chefs Long Table was an absolute success raising over $6000 for the Jetty and for the past 19 years we have watched this lunch grow into what you see today. Raising over 1 million dollars for Local Charities and non for profits all over the Southwest.

None of this would have been possible without one very special lady Leonie Kershaw!

An institution in the local hospitality industry Leonie, with daughter Tania started out with a catering company and small shop front, Mangrove River Café. They quickly outgrew their little shop front so struck a deal with Prosser and took over the office building next door. That's when Mangroves really took off.

In 2011 Leonie was inducted into the Inaugural WA Women's Hall of Fame for her service to the community always striving to support local, Leonie is one of WA's most loved and inspirational leaders. Always leading by example Leonie has mentored countless people from Chefs to Waitstaff.

A very hard but fair leader Leonie gained unwavering respect from all who crossed her path.

Living by the motto "Service above Self" Leonie is the living embodiment of this and has dedicated her life to helping others, so today on the 20th Anniversary we celebrate You Leonie, your service and dedication to the industry and everyone in it.

Thank you Leonie for everything
